 Celebrating International Women's Day 8th March, 2020

International Women's Day: International Women's Day is a worldwide event that celebrates women's achievements – from the political to the social – while calling for gender equality.

It has been observed since the early 1900s and is now recognized each year on March 8 March .It is not affiliated with any one group, but brings together governments, women's organizations, corporations and charities. The day is marked around the world with arts performances, talks, and rallies, networking events, conferences and marches.is celebrated in many countries around the world. It is a day when women are recognized for their achievements without regard to divisions, whether national, ethnic, linguistic, cultural, economic or political. International Women's Day first emerged from the activities of labour movements at the turn of the twentieth century in North America and across Europe.

For the past couple of years, women's rights have dominated the news, following a global reckoning on sexual misconduct rippling through industries. Following the outpouring of allegations against Harvey Weinstein and other prominent men in power (and Weinstein's watershed trial), the #MeToo movement gave a voice to women on the abuse and harassment they suffer in film, fashion, music, politics and art.

The theme for IWD 2020 is "# Generation Equality: Realizing women's rights for an equal future" recognizing all of the actions we can take as individuals to challenge stereotypes, fight prejudice and celebrate women's achievements. Bangladesh Government following the UN theme "cÔRbY tnvK mgZvi ,mKj bvixl AwaKvi

The year 2020 is an important one for gender equality.The year 2020 is an important one for gender equality. It is the 25th anniversary of the Beijing Declaration and Platform for Action, the most advanced blueprint for achieving gender equality in the world. It also marks 10 years since the establishment of UN Women, and the 25th anniversary of the UN Security Council resolution 1325 on women, peace and security.

International Women's Day: The theme of the International Women's Day is "to recognize women's, an human being and their contributions to our lives and society and reflect about how to achieve more equality among men and women. It reflects the power and strength of women who have achieved more equality among men and women.

Description: BWP team celebrated International Women's Day on 8 March 2020 at Dhaka and Dhanmondi. In Dhanmondi and Dhaka with fully and unceasurably any Committee for future planning on gender issues. About 100 participants were present. The main speaker was Md. Shahidul Islam, Additional DG, BWP. Annual meeting of the committee for gender issues was held. BWP and other team member of BWP. "In name and BWP" commitment to gender equality.

At Dhanmondi, Md. Nasirul Haq 25, Additional DG, BWP, Annual meeting of the committee for gender issues was held. BWP and other team member of BWP. "In name and BWP" commitment to gender equality.

Below: The slogan of this year "Equal for equal" "Equal for better" "They need their voice, gender equality, justice and gender balance world". One of the objectives of the conference is to start an effort as human being to take up the leadership role within the society. Now many people surprised as the women power the society in every field. The women are the best human resource. They are not used to see another person's voice to ask for change and for rights.

Discussion:

1. What are the barriers for gender equality?
2. What are the barriers or challenges to achieve more gender equality in Blue Gold?
3. How can we overcome the challenges?
4. How can we achieve gender equality to reduce gender inequality?

Blue Gold Program Wiki

The wiki version of the Lessons Learnt Report of the Blue Gold program, documents the experiences of a technical assistance (TA) team working in a development project implemented by the Bangladesh Water Development Board (BWDB) and the Department of Agricultural Extension (DAE) over an eight+ year period from March 2013 to December 2021. The wiki lessons learnt report (LLR) is intended to complement the BWDB and DAE project completion reports (PCRs), with the aim of recording lessons learnt for use in the design and implementation of future interventions in the coastal zone.
